(f) Names of subscribers or their authorized agents who bid the draw, their ticket numbers and signatures.

(2) Rate of interest payable by the defaulted subscriber and the duty of foreman on receipt of subscription: —

Every subscriber who defaulted in payment of instalments in time as per the chit agreement, shall pay the interest @ 12% per annum on the amount so payable to the foreman and the foreman shall pay the amount of dividend of each draw even to the defaulted subscriber as and when the subscriber pays the defaulted subscription.

(3) No agent or representative of the foreman or the family members of his family shall act as agents: —

No agent or representative of the foreman or the members of his family shall act as agent of subscriber for the purpose of participation in a chit auction. However, a subscriber can appoint an agent in writing who can represent only one subscriber in each auction.

CHAPTER - III

18. Procedure in the case of security given by the foreman: —

(1) In case of cash deposited in an approved bank in the name of the Registrar under clause (a) of sub-section(1) of Section 20, the receipt or the book issued by the approved Bank mentioned in the chit agreement shall be delivered to the Registrar.

(2) In case of Government securities transferred in favour of the Registrar under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of the Section 20, the Registrar shall keep them in safe custody under his control in any Government Treasury.

(3) If the security offered is accepted as sufficient by the Registrar, he shall record in writing on the application, a certificate of sufficiency in Form XI and attach a statement of valuation made.

(4) If the security offered is not accepted by the Registrar, he shall give the applicant an endorsement to that effect.

19. Valuation of chit amount in grain chits: —

In a grain chit, for the purpose of security under Section 20, the grain shall be valued by the Registrar as follows:

(a) The total quantity of grain due from all subscribers at one instalment of the chit shall be ascertained;

(b) The market value for the time being of the total quantity referred to in clause(a) shall then be calculated;

(c) In assessing the market value, the Registrar shall adopt the current market prices at the nearest Mandal town as ascertained from the Mandal Revenue Officer having jurisdiction;

(d) One and a quarter times the market value mentioned in clause (b) shall be taken to be the chit amount for the purpose of furnishing security by the foreman under sub-section (1) of Section 20.

20. Substitution of security: —

(1) During the currency of a chit, the foreman may apply to the Registrar in Form XII for permission to substitute the security given by him for the proper conduct of the chit by fresh security.

(2) The Registrar may grant permission after satisfying himself;

(i) that the request of the foreman for substitution of security given under Section 20 is for the reasons stated in the application; and (ii) that the fresh security offered is adequate.

(3) The procedure prescribed in Rule 18 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the substituted security given by the foreman under this rule.

21. Release of original security in the case of substitutions: —

(1) The Registrar shall, if so required by the foreman, execute and register a deed of release in respect of the original security at the cost of the foreman.

(2) If the original security to be returned is Government securities deposited in a Government Treasury, the Registrar shall arrange in return the securities offered by the foreman after taking endorsements of re-transfer in the pass book (receipt) or Government security (or other record), as the case may be.

(3) If the original security to be returned is movable property other than Government security, the Registrar shall arrange to return such security by executing such deed or making such endorsement as may be necessary for an effective retransfer in favour of the foreman.

22. Application for release of security: —

On termination of chit the foreman may apply to the Registrar for the release of the security given by him.

23. Declaration by foreman: —

The application for release of security under sub-section (5) of Section 20 shall contain a declaration separately signed by the foreman stating that the claims of all the subscribers have been fully satisfied and that all dues payable by the foreman under the Act to the Registrar or any other Officer have been fully paid.

24. Procedure for release of security: —

(1) (a) The Registrar may for the purpose of releasing the security under sub section (5) of Section 20 call upon the foreman to produce a copy duly certified to be a true copy of any register and books of account maintained by the foreman and shall exhibit a notice on his office notice board stating that the security is proposed to be released and that any person objecting to such release may file with the Registrar his statement of objections, if any, within fifteen days from the date of exhibition of the notice.

(b) If no objections are received within the period specified in the notice, the Registrar shall release the security, together with interest, if any, accrued therein and remaining unpaid.

(2) If any objections are received, the Registrar shall enquire into the objections summarily within fourteen days after the date of expiry of the period specified in the notice referred to in sub-rule(1)(a) and record his decision in writing and forward a copy thereof to the foreman and to the objector.

(3) The procedure prescribed in Rule 21 for re-transfer of property by the Registrar shall apply mutatis mutandis to the release of security made under this Rule.

25. Books of Accounts to be maintained by the foreman: —

In addition to the book of minutes of draws mentioned in Section 17, every foreman shall keep the following registers and books of accounts in the Forms mentioned, against each or in the Forms as near thereto as possible.

- (1) Register of subscribers in Form XIII;
- (2) A ledger in Form XIV;
- (3) A Day book in Form XV;
- (4) A Receipt Book in Form XVI, duly certified by the foreman as to the number of pages in duplicate;

- (8) A file containing documents relating to securities offered by the prized subscribers.

26. Accounts to be written up promptly: —

(1) Every entry in the Register of subscribers, the Ledger or the Day book mentioned in Rule 25 shall be made as and when the particular event occurs.

(2) On receipt of any money, a receipt shall immediately be prepared or cause to be prepared by the foreman in Form XVI and delivered to the payer.

(3) The foreman shall at the time of issuing every notice, prepare a copy thereof in the book mentioned under clause (5) of Rule 25, certify it to be a true copy and enter therein under his signature, the date of dispatch of the notice.

(4) Every document relating to the security given by the prized subscribers shall, as soon as it is received, be filed in the file mentioned in clause (8) of Rule 25. The file shall contain as index for facilitating the scrutiny of the documents.

27. Filing of vouchers: —

As soon as each payment is made, the foreman shall obtain a voucher from the payee. He shall verify whether the voucher specifies the purpose for which the payment was received and whether it is properly signed by the recipient and preserve it in the file mentioned in clause (7) of Rule 25 after assigning a serial number thereto for each calendar month.

28. Date for submission of Balance sheet: —

(1) The balance sheet prepared in accordance with the provisions of Section 24 shall be filed with the Registrar within a period of three months from the expiry of the period with reference to which it is prepared.

(2) Receipts and Expenditure Account and statement showing the assets and liabilities of the individual chit group shall be filed in the form XXI with Registrar within a period of two months from the termination of the chit when the duration of the chit does not exceed one year and when the duration of the chit exceeds one year on expiry of every period of twelve months and also on the termination of the chit.

29. Audit by a Chit Auditor: —

(1) If a foreman desires to have the Balance sheet and Profit and Loss Account audited by the Chit Auditor appointed under sub-section (2) of Section 61, the foreman shall immediately after the preparation of the balance sheet make an application for such audit to the Registrar within whose jurisdiction the chit is conducted specifying whether the audit shall be at the premises of the foreman or not. The application shall be accompanied by the amount of fee set out in Appendix II.

(2) The Registrar shall forward the application to the concerned Chit Auditor to have the balance sheet and profit and loss account and receipt and expenditure account of individual chit audited by him as early as possible. On receipt of the application, the chit auditor on such date, time and place as he may fix, the foreman shall produce all registers, books of accounts and other records relating to the chit accordingly and furnish such information and give such facilities as may be necessary or required for the proper audit of the balance sheet and profit and loss account and receipt and expenditure account of the individual chit at the time and place fixed by the chit auditor.

(3) In case the chit auditor feels doubt, as to the running of chits by the foreman he may audit all the records, including profit and loss accounts and receipts and expenditure accounts of each individual chit, at any time by giving a prior notice to the foreman if practicable.

(4) Notice of not less than seven days shall be given to the foreman as to the date of audit in the premises of the foreman or for the production of registers, books of account and other records relating to the chit business, as the case may be.

30. Audit certificate and report of the chit auditor to be in quadruplicate: —

The chit auditor shall prepare his report and audit certificate in quadruplicate and shall send two copies to the foreman so that he can keep one copy with him and file the other copy under Rule 31. He shall furnish the third copy to the Registrar and keep the remaining copy for his own file.

31. Time for filing balance sheets audited by a chit auditor or other auditors: —

(1) Where the audit is done by the chit auditor, the foreman shall file with the Registrar a copy of the balance sheet and profit and loss account together with the audit certificate and auditor's report within one month from the date of the receipt of the audit certificate and audit report from the chit auditor or within three months from the last day of the period covered by the balance sheet, whichever is earlier.

(2) In the case of audit by an auditor qualified to act as auditor of companies under the Companies Act, 1956 (Central Act 1 of 1956) the foreman shall file with the Registrar the documents referred to in sub-rule (1) within three months from the expiry of the period with reference to which the balance sheet is prepared under Section 24 and in the case of individual chit as referred to sub-rule (2) of Rule 28 within a period of two months.

(2) Notice of the preparation of the provisional statement accompanied by a copy thereof shall be published and be served on the petitioner, the subscribers and other persons mentioned by the receiver in such manner as the Registrar may direct. If the number of persons on whom notice is to be served is large, the notice may, in the discretion of the Registrar, be served on the petitioner only and advertised in one or more daily newspapers. The notice shall specify the date on which objections to the provisional statement will be heard and shall call upon any person having such objections. (i) to submit his statement of objections and the grounds therefor supported by an affidavit before the date appointed by the Registrar in this behalf; and (ii) to appear in person or by an advocate on the date of hearing with all the evidence in support of his objections.

34. Set-off to be allowed : —

When money is due from the foreman to a subscriber and also from the subscriber to the foreman, the subscriber be allowed the benefit of set-off.

35. Hearing of objections to the provisional statement: —

On the date fixed for the hearing of the objections under sub-rule (2) of Rule 33, the Registrar shall enquire into the objections and after considering the evidence, if any adduced in support thereof pass, orders on the objections and call upon the receiver to revise, if necessary, the provisional statement in accordance with his orders. The Registrar shall fix a date by which revision is to be made and intimate orally or in writing such date to the persons who have appeared in person or through their advocates on the date of the hearing.

36. Final orders of settlement by Registrar: —

(1) As soon as possible thereafter and at least ten days before the date fixed under Rule 35, the Receiver shall submit to the Registrar a fresh list of subscribers or other persons to whom or from whom moneys are due and fresh proposals for the distribution of the available chit assets after making such further enquiry as may be necessary. The Registrar shall thereupon consider the said list and proposals and approve or modify them in such manner as he considers necessary. The Registrar shall pass final orders accordingly on the date fixed under Rule 35 for the collection and distribution of the Chit assets. The Registrar may also pass such orders as may be necessary for the distribution of the available chit assets in case such assets happen to be insufficient to meet the sums which have to be paid to the subscribers.

(2) The final orders passed by the Registrar under this rule shall be conclusive evidence of the several claims to be met out of the chit assets.

37. Provision for expenses of winding up: —

In making proposals for the distribution of the chit assets, the Receiver shall specify the estimated amount of the cost of winding up including remuneration for the Receiver and such other items of expenditure as are incidental to the winding up and such estimated amount shall first be provided for and deducted from the value of the chit assets and the balance amount shall also be proposed for distribution in the provisional statement and the fresh list mentioned in Rule 36.

38. Filing of Final accounts by Receiver: —

(1) Upon the termination of the proceedings relating to the winding up, the Receiver shall file his final accounts with the Registrar within fifteen days of such final accounts being passed by the Registrar and the balance of money in the hands of the Receiver shall be paid to the Registrar. The Receiver shall also state how the balance amount may be disposed of together with the reasons for his proposals. He shall also deposit with the Registrar all books, accounts and all other records relating to the chit which has been wound up.

(2) The Receiver may, thereafter apply to the Registrar for a certificate of discharge from the duties as Receiver and for the vacating of his recognizance bonds entered into by him and the sureties, if any. On receipt of such application, the Registrar may pass orders of such discharge and vacating of the bonds and for disposal of the final balance of the chit assets, if any.

39. Final order of winding up by the Registrar : —

(1) After the affairs of a chit have been completely wound up, the Registrar shall make an order recording the fact of such winding up.

(2) A copy of such order shall be exhibited on the notice board of the Registrar.

40. Disposal of Records : —

The Books and papers of a chit which has been completely wound up and of the Receiver shall be retained and disposed of in such manner as the Registrar may direct.

41. Meetings: —

When the number of subscribers is large and the Registrar, whether on an application of the Receiver or not, at any stage considers that a meeting of all such parties is necessary in order to ascertain their wishes in any matter, the Registrar may pass an order for holding such a meeting. The Registrar may direct the manner in which and the time and place at which the meeting shall be held and the Receiver shall convene and hold the meeting accordingly.

CHAPTER - V

FEES

42. Table of Fees: —

The fees payable to the Registrar for matters specified in Section 62 and Section 63 shall be as set out in Appendix-II and shall be paid in cash.

43. Receipt for fees: —

The Registrar shall grant receipts for all fees received by him.

44. Refund of fees: ----

The Registrar may refund any fee paid to him in excess of the amount prescribed or any fee that is unearned.

Explanation: The expression “fee that is unearned” in this rule means fees paid in connection with the registration of the chit agreement, the filing of a document or other service to be performed by the Registrar where such registration or filing is not actually effected or the service is not actually rendered.

CHAPTER - VI DISPUTES AND ARBITRATION

45. Reference of dispute: —

A reference of a dispute under Section 64 shall be made in writing to the Registrar in Form XVII. Wherever necessary, the Registrar may require the party referring the dispute to him to produce a certified copy of the relevant records on which the dispute is based and such other statements or records as may be required by him before proceeding with the consideration of such reference.

46. Registrars satisfaction regarding existence of a dispute: —

Where any reference of a dispute is made to the Registrar or any matter is brought to his notice, the Registrar shall, on the basis of the reference (if any) made to him in Form XVII and the relevant records and statements submitted to him, record his decision together with the reasons therefor, whether he is or is not satisfied about the existence of a dispute within the meaning of Section 64. Such recording of decision shall be sufficient proof of the Registrar’s satisfaction whether the matter is or is not a dispute, as the case may be.

47. Disposal of a dispute or reference to a nominee: —

(1) Where the Registrar is satisfied that there is a dispute, the Registrar may decide himself or refer it to his nominee, for disposal.

(2) Neither the Registrar nor his nominee shall take up for consideration any dispute, unless the parties concerned comply with the condition of affixing the court fees specified in Rule 57 of these rules for determining the dispute.

48. Qualifications for appointment as Registrars nominees: —

(1) The State Government or the Registrar of Chits may appoint a person to be a Registrar's nominee provided that, —

(a) he has practiced as an Advocate, Pleader or Vakil for not less than five years; or

(b) he is enrolled as an advocate or holds a degree or other qualification in law of any university established by law or of any other authority which entitles him to be enrolled as an Advocate; or

(c) he has held office not lower in rank than that of Sub-Registrar of Chits / Assistant Registrar of Chits for not less than five years; or

(d) he possesses good knowledge and experience of chit fund legislation and practice.

(2) The State Government or Registrar of Chits may by a notification in the Official Gazette, appoint as many persons as may be necessary to act as Registrar's nominees for settlement of disputes arising under the Act.

49. Procedure for hearing and decision of disputes: —

(1) The Registrar or his nominee shall record either in english or in the official language of the State i.e., Telugu, the evidence of the parties to the dispute and the witnesses who attend. Upon the evidence so recorded, and upon consideration of any documentary evidence produced by the parties, a decision shall be given by him in writing. Such decision shall be pronounced in the open court, either at once or as soon as may be practicable on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties.

(2) Where neither party appears when the dispute is called out for hearing, the Registrar or his nominee may make an order that it be dismissed for default.

(3) Where the opponent appears and the disputant does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, the Registrar or his nominee may make an order that the dispute be dismissed, unless the opponent admits the claims or a part thereof, in which case the Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may make an order against the opponent upon such admission, and where, only part of the claim is admitted, may dismiss the dispute in so far as it relates to the remainder.

(4) Where the disputant appears and the opponent does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, then if the Registrar or his nominee is satisfied from the record and proceedings that the summons was duly served, the Registrar or his nominee may proceed with the dispute ex-parte. Where the summon is served by any officer of the Registrar or his nominee, he shall make his report of service on oath.

(5) The Registrar or his nominee may not ordinarily grant more than two adjournments to each party to the dispute at his request. The Registrar or his nominee may, however, at his discretion grant such further adjournments on payment of such costs to the other side and such fees to the Registrar or his nominee, as the Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may direct.

(6) Any party to a dispute may apply for and obtain a certified copy of any order, judgement or award made by the Registrar or his nominee on payment of fees, at the rate prescribed in Appendix-II.

50. Summons, notices, and fixing of dates, place etc., in connection with the disputes: —

(1) The Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may issue summons or notices at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the hearing of the dispute requiring:

- (i) the attendance of the parties to the dispute, and of witness if any; and
- (ii) the production of all books and documents relating to the matter in dispute.

(2) Summons or notices issued by the Registrar or his nominee may be served through the Mandal Revenue Officer / Tahsildar or any employee of the Chit Department or by registered post with acknowledgement due.

(3) The Officer serving summons or notice, shall in all cases in which summons or notice has been served, endorse or annex or cause to be endorsed on or annexed to, the original summons or notice, a return stating the time when, and the manner in which the summons or, as the case may be, notice was served, and the name and address of the person (if any) identifying the person served and witnessing the delivery or tender of the summons or the notices.

(4) The official issuing the summons or notice may examine the serving officer on oath or cause him to be so examined by the officer through whom it is served and may make such further enquiry in the matter as he thinks fit, and shall either declare that the summons or notice, as the case may be, has been duly served or order it to be served in such manner as he thinks fit.

(5) The mode of serving summons and notices as laid down in sub-rule (1) to (4) shall mutatis mutandis apply to the service of summons or notices issued by the Registrar or the person authorize by him, when acting under Section 46.

51. Investigation of claims and objections against any attachment: —

Where any claim or objection has been preferred against the attachment of any property under Section 68 on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the Registrar, or his nominee, as the case may be, shall investigate into the claim or objection and dispose it of on merits.

Provided that, no such investigation shall be made if the Registrar or his nominee considers that the claim or objection is frivolous.

52. Procedure for the custody of property attached under Section 68: —
